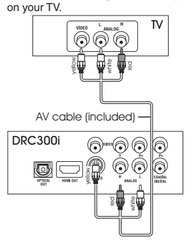
SETUP AND CONNECTIONS

CONNECTING TO A TV

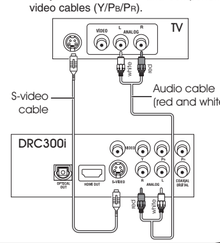
The unit can be connected to your TV in several different ways, depending on the design of your TV.
Note: Use only one of the below listed connection method for connecting to your TV.

A. RCA AUDIO/VIDEO JACKS

1. Use the Audio/Video cable (supplied). Connect the VIDEO OUT and left/right AUDIO OUT jacks on the unit to the VIDEO IN and left/right AUDIO IN jacks on your TV.



2. Use the S-video cable (not supplied). If the TV has a S Video input, connect the unit with an S video cable. When using an S-Video cable, do not connect the yellow video cable and component video cables (Y/PB/PR).



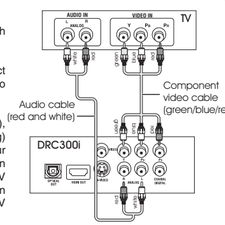
- When using the HDMI cable, do not connect to other analog video outputs.
- Set an output signal from the HDMI terminal of the DVD player in accordance with your TV's input signal.
- When using HDMI cable, set the HDMI Audio to PCM.

B. COMPONENT VIDEO OUT (DVD)

Some TVs or monitors are equipped with component video inputs.

Use an audio cable (not supplied), connect the left/right AUDIO OUT jacks on your unit to the left/right AUDIO IN jacks on your TV.

Using a component video cable (not supplied), connect the Y VIDEO OUT jack (green plug) on your unit to the Y VIDEO IN jack on your TV, the PB VIDEO OUT jack (blue plug) on your unit to the PB VIDEO IN jack on your TV and the PR VIDEO OUT jack (red plug) on your unit to the PR VIDEO IN jack on your TV to view the highest quality picture playback.



C. CONNECTING TO A DISPLAY (Using a HDMI cable)

For TVs that support it, HDMI can provide the best quality audio and video output (depending on media source), and so is the preferred connection type. The HDMI cable incorporates both audio and video signals, so you will have just one cable running from the unit to your TV.

Using the HDMI cable (not included), connect the HDMI OUT jack on your unit to the HDMI IN jack on your TV or HDMI-compatible display.

- Press the HDMI button on the remote control to change output signals as below:

480p (progressive)
720p (progressive)
1080i (interlace)
1080p (progressive)

Notes:

- Refer to your owner's manual to the connected TV as well.
- When you connect the DVD player to your TV, be sure to turn off the power and unplug both units from the wall outlet before making any connections.
- If you have a HDMI (with HDCP) equipped monitor or display, you can connect it to this player using a HDMI cable.
