Installation

Windows

NOTE: The Bluetooth adapter may auto-install using native drivers, however it is recommended to use the procedure below to update to the latest version.

1. Connect the Bluetooth adapter to an available USB port, if the Found New Hardware wizard appears on the screen, cancel/close the window and insert the included Driver CD into the computer's CD/DVD drive.
2. Run the Setup.exe application from the Autoplay menu. If Autoplay is disabled on your system, browse to your CD/DVD drive and run the application.

3. Follow the on-screen instructions to complete the installation.
NOTE: You may be prompted to restart once the install completes.

Mac OS

1. Connect the Bluetooth adapter to an available USB port; the device should auto-install using native drivers.

FCC Compliance Statement

This equipment has been tested and found to comply with the limits for a Class B digital device, pursuant to part 15 of the FCC Rules. These limits are designed to provide reasonable protection against harmful interference in a residential installation. This equipment generates, uses and can radiate radio frequency energy and, if not installed and used in accordance with the instructions, may cause harmful interference to radio communications. However, there is no guarantee that interference will not occur in a particular installation. If this equipment does cause harmful interference to radio or television reception, which can be determined by turning the equipment off and on, the user is encouraged to try to correct the interference by one or more of the following measures:

- Reorient or relocate the receiving antenna.
- Increase the separation between the equipment and receiver.
- Connect the equipment into an outlet on a circuit different from that to which the receiver is connected.
- Consult the dealer or an experienced radio/TV technician for help.

This Class [B] digital apparatus complies with Canadian ICES-003.

Cet appareil numérique de la classe [B] est conforme à la norme NMB-003 du Canada.
