blades. If you do this after every clipping, especially with heavy hair cutting, the blades should remain free of cut hair. If clipper stops cutting and this action doesn't help, try loosening the blades to remove the hair.

If clipper stops cutting, check to see if there is a clump of hair lodged between the blades. If that is the problem, unplug the clipper and then loosen the blades to remove the hair.

This clipper has a detachable blade that makes cleaning easy. Just push up on the top of the blade and it will pop off easily. Remove any loose hair with the cleaning brush provided and then place blade back in position. To secure properly, line up the base of the blade with the lower back of the clipper. Push down into place until you hear a snap to know it's locked in place.
