Hunter Fan Company

READ AND SAVE THESE INSTRUCTIONS

Caution: Risk of Electrical Shock!

Transmitter Model No. 27177

This device complies with part 15 of the FCC rules. Changes or modifications not expressly approved by Hunter Fan Company could void your authority to operate this equipment!

Operation Is Subject To The Following Two Conditions:

1. This device may not cause harmful interference.
2. This device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.

This equipment has been tested and found to comply with the limits for a Class B digital device, pursuant to Part 15 of the FCC Rules. These limits are designed to provide reasonable protection against harmful interference in a residential installation. This equipment generates, uses and can radiate radio frequency energy and, if not installed and used in accordance with the instructions, may cause harmful interference to radio communications. However, there is no guarantee that interference will not occur in a particular installation.

If this equipment does cause harmful interference to radio or television reception, which can be determined by turning the equipment off and on, the user is encouraged to try to correct the interference by one or more of the following measures:

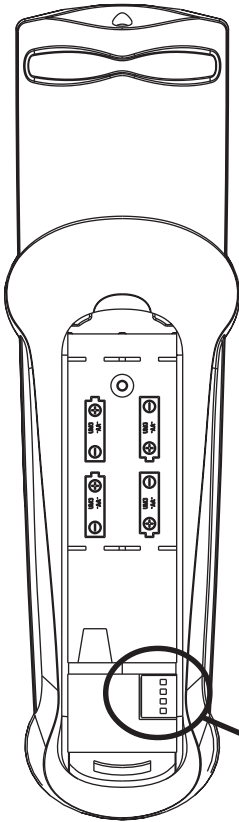

- Reorient or relocate the receiving antenna.
- Increase the separation between the equipment and receiver.
- Connect the equipment into an outlet on a circuit different from that to which the receiver is connected.
- Consult the dealer or an experienced radio/TV technician for help.

Note: Any changes or modifications to the transmitter or receiver not expressly approved by Hunter Fan Company may void one's authority to operate this remote control.

Not for use with shaded-pole or non-reversible motors. Not recommended for use with the Hunter Original®.

setting up your remote control

installing your batteries

1. Remove the battery cover.
2. Install 4 AA batteries.

setting your remote dip switches

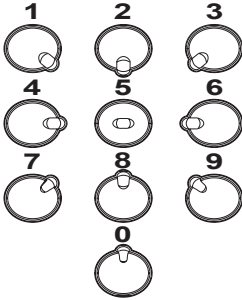

Your dip switches control the radio frequency signal that is used to control your Hunter ceiling fan. The dip switches in the remote should be the same as the dip switches/pin jumpers in the receiver that is installed in your Hunter ceiling fan.

1. Set the dip switches in the remote to the same code as the dip switches in the receiver.
2. Replace the battery cover.

Dip Switches

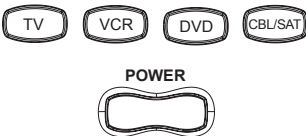

setting up your remote control

programming your device code

1. Manually turn on your device.
2. On your Hunter Universal Video & Fan Remote, press and hold the device button for 3 seconds. The red indicator light comes on and goes off.
3. Release the device button. The red indicator light comes on as you release the device button.
4. Press the 4 digit code listed for your device brand on pages 7-13. The red indicator light should go off when pressing a button and come on when the button is released.
5. The red indicator light should flash 3 times to indicate that the code was successfully entered. The remote then exits to the normal operating mode.

testing your device code

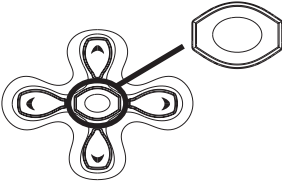

1. Press and release the device button.
2. Press and release the POWER button.
3. If your device does not turn off, start over with programming your device code and try the next code listed for your device brand. If you are still unable to find a code, try searching for your device code. If you are unable to program your device, feel free to contact Hunter Customer Service for assistance at 1-888-830-1326.
4. Once you have found the code that works for your device, write the code in the space provided.
